

APUSH
INSTRUCTOR: W. JOHN MCCORMICK
JAPANESE INTERNMENT PROJECT

Please prepare an essay of 5 - 7 pages answering ONE question listed below. The inclusion of a concise thesis statement, organization, clarity and completeness will be considered in grading the content of your paper. Spelling, punctuation and grammar will be considered in grading the structure of your paper. One point out of one-hundred will be deducted for every structural error committed. The two grades will be averaged to determine the final grade for the paper. Double-spaced typing is required. Use no larger than twelve-point font style. Late papers will not be accepted.

CHOOSE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING REQUIRED QUESTIONS:

- A. In what ways does this book help readers understand causes and effects of the internment of Japanese Americans during WWII? Illustrate your points with specifics from the book.
- B. People can respond to injustice and loss in many ways. Explain at least three of these ways, illustrating your ideas with examples from Farewell to Manzanar.
- C. What do young Jeanne Wakatsuki's years at Manzanar take away from her?

Use short quotes and paraphrases to prove your argument. You may use other sources but do not include large block quotes from the author/sources being examined. There is no need for footnotes or bibliography. Page numbers should be cited. This should be done in parenthesis in the text, e.g. (Wakatsuki, p. 22); (Grolier's Academic American Encyclopedia, p. 76). Please also provide a cover page including title, course number and title, instructor name and your name and date.
